

The European Association of Guarantee Institutions, as a representative of Guarantee institutions in Europe, organizes a range of events in Brussels and other cities around the world to support its advocacy agenda.

When you register you are invited to accept the terms and conditions as formulated below.

Data Protection & Disclaimer

By registering to AECM events, you agree that your personal data will be processed by AECM for registration and handling purposes, as well as for sending you information in connection with all AECM's events. Any personal data will be solely used in accordance with current EU and Belgian data protection legislation, this data will not be disclosed to any third party without the registrant's explicit written consent. Please refer to AECM's Privacy Policy that can be consulted at <https://www.aecm.eu>. If you do not submit the data indicated as "required" we cannot complete your registration.

AECM may not be held responsible for any loss, injury, or damage to any property, whatever the cause may be in relation to its events. Liability of persons and enterprises providing means of transportation or other services, however, remains unaffected.

AECM reserves the right to amend, postpone, or withdraw the event, for any reason should any circumstances arise that are outside AECM's control, such as force majeure including, but not limited to fire, flood, strikes, labor disputes, war, blockades, pandemic, riots, acts or threats of terrorism and the unavailability of means of transport. AECM will endeavor to amend or postpone the event but shall not be held responsible for any costs, damages or expenses incurred by registrants.

Any travel/accommodation costs incurred are entirely the registrant's responsibility. AECM does not accept any liability for reimbursement of travel costs unless otherwise stated.

All issues, questions and disputes concerning the validity, interpretation, enforcement, performance, or termination stemming from AECM events shall be exclusively governed and construed in accordance with Belgian law. All disputes shall be submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Brussels, without prejudice to AECM's right to initiate proceedings under the laws and before the courts of the registrant's registered office, in the event that any sums are due by the registrant to AECM.

Photographs and videos

AECM reserves the right to photograph and videotape its conferences and all attendees and to use these photographs and videos in any internal and external communication related to AECM, including, but not limited to, its website and mobile applications, social media pages, event daily newspapers, conference programme, newsletters, publications and annual reports.

When registering for the event, the registrant explicitly agrees to the use of his/her image.

AECM can use the photographs and videos as publicity material without any compensation in perpetuity. Any personal data will be solely used in accordance with current EU and Belgian data protection legislation and will not be disclosed to any third party without the registrant's prior written consent.

No show/Cancellation policy: When registering to AECM events for which no fee is charged to the participants, please consider your organization's code of ethics and notify us formally and in due time in case of unexpected change of your priorities or plans, per email to AECM events team.
